- o Legislative Interest, a House committee-related activity, may now be searched from the Legislation Advanced Search form.
- o To search, select the Legislative Interest checkbox from the Committees section of the form either on its own or in combination with other committee-related activity options: Any, Referred to, Hearings by, Markup by, Reported by, Reported Original Measure, or Discharged from.
- o Limit the search to one or multiple committees using the Choose House Committees or Choose Senate Committees buttons below the checkboxes.
- o Example – From the Legislation Advanced Search form, a user may retrieve 115th Congress legislation of Legislative Interest to the House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee.

Enhancement – Legislation with Actions Related to House Committees Browse – “Legislative Interest” Column

- o The Legislation with Actions Related to House Committees browse report now has a column for Legislative Interest data.
- o Columns in the report – All Legislation, Originated, Referred, Hearings, Markups, Reported, Discharged, and Legislative Interest – each contain data for legislation on which a committee has acted. Committees only display in the report after their legislative activities have been received from the official House legislative data system. Numbers in each column link to results lists for the specified committee-related activity.
- o Example – The 113th Congress report displays 20 items of Legislative Interest to the House Homeland Security committee. Selecting the link in the Legislative Interest column displays the 20 bills in a results list.

Enhancement – Search forms – Words & Phrases search box improvements

- o A label has been added to identify the Words & Phrases search box on the homepage search forms.
- o The size of the box has been increased to make it easier to view long search queries.
- o Cursor now defaults to the Words & Phrases search box on the Legislation search form so users can begin typing keywords without needing to click into the box.

The screenshot shows the Congress.gov search interface. The top navigation bar includes 'CONGRESS.GOV', 'Advanced Searches', and 'Browse'. The main content area is titled 'Legislation'. On the left, there is a sidebar with navigation links: 'Legislation', 'Legislation Text', 'Committee Reports', 'Congressional Record', 'Nominations', 'House Communications', 'Senate Communications', and 'Treaty Documents'. The main search area is titled 'Words & Phrases' and contains a search box with the text 'Examples: "Trade Relations", "Export Control"'. Below the search box are several filters: 'Include bill text in this search' (checkbox), 'Word Variants' (checkbox), 'Case Sensitive' (checkbox), and 'Search Only' (checkboxes for 'Titles', 'Summaries', 'Actions'). There are also sections for 'Congress' (dropdown menu), 'Sponsors/Cosponsors' (checkboxes for 'Sponsor' and 'Cosponsor', dropdowns for 'Any Representative' and 'Any Senator'), 'Legislation and Law Numbers' (text input with examples), 'Legislative Actions' (dropdown menu), and 'Committees' (dropdowns for 'Any House Committees' and 'Any Senate Committees'). At the bottom, there are links for 'About Legislation' and 'Browse Legislation by Actions', and buttons for 'Reset' and 'Search'.
